Close your eyes and let your imagination take you to a tropical place where aquamarine seas sparkle in the morning sun, floral scents hang heavy in the air, and balmy breezes provide a warm embrace. Add to it coral reefs teeming with multi-colored fish, spicy and flavorful Creole cuisine, and people that are as friendly as long-lost relatives.

True Blue Bay Resort is perched in the hillsides on the south coast of Grenada - the perfect place; commanding an exquisite view of the coast of Grenada where the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean meet. This special Caribbean boutique resort is set among tropical gardens sloping down to the sparkling blue waters of True Blue Bay.

To promote relaxation and comfort in sumptuous surroundings each of these Caribbean style villas and rooms was thoughtfully designed with an eye-on detail. Every room is richly appointed using woods of the tropics, sea inspired metal artwork pieces, and colorful details promoted with soft cool fabrics.

Grenada is a rolling, mountainous island, covered with fragrant spice trees and rare tropical flowers. Bordered by stunning beaches, and dotted with picturesque towns, this verdant island has long been a major source of nutmeg, cloves, ginger, cinnamon, and cocoa. The seductive drifts through the colourful Saturday markets and Grenada's dense forests. In the interior of this volcanic island are cascading rivers and waterfalls, lush rainforests, and one of the most breathtakingly beautiful mountain lakes imaginable. The capital, St. George's, is widely held to be the loveliest city in the Caribbean. Its horseshoe-shaped harbour is surrounded by a pastel rainbow of dockside warehouses and the red-tiled roofs of traditional shops and homes
